NORTH WEST PROVINCIAL GOVERNMENT TO ENGAGE STAKEHOLDERS TOWARDS THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NORTH WEST DEVELOPMENT FUND

Mahikeng: In an endeavour to foster strong and lasting partnerships between government and the private sector that will drive inclusive economic growth, the Acting Premier for North West Province, Kenetswe Mosenogi will on Thursday, 05 June, have an engagement with the private sector to mobilise funds towards the North West Development Fund.

This Fund is deeply rooted in public interest with primary focus on driving infrastructure development, create jobs, and promote education and vocational training for the previously disadvantaged communities of our province.

This engagement is part of the series of meetings that started in March this year after the announcement by Premier Lazarus Mokgosi that the province intends to launch the development fund.

The details of the stakeholders engagement session are as follows:

Date : Thursday, 05 June 2025
Time : 14:00
Venue: Anew Resort formerly known as Hunters Rest Resort, Rustenburg

Media is invited to attend and cover the engagement. For confirmations, please contact Ms Bonolo Mohlakoana on 082 901 2435 and Mr Kelepile Mokaila on 066 207 4456
